Joshua Jenson

6440 Avondale Dr., Suite 200
Oklahoma City, OK 73116

Dear Mr. Jenson:

We will be resuming our tax policy working group in this month. Recognizing your schedule will become increasingly busy over the next few months, I would like to try to meet on January 30, at 2:30 in Congressman Istook's office.

Our address is 5400 N. Grand, Suite 505. Congressman Istook has been named the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee's subcommittee on Treasury, Postal and General Government. The responsibilities of this new assignment will include policy issues for the IRS. I have enclosed a recent press release regarding this new assignment.

Given the results of this year's presidential election, and his new role as chairman of this important subcommittee, Congressman Istook is looking forward to the upcoming session with great anticipation. Congressman Istook eagerly requests your suggestions and ideas on how we can work together to address the various tax policy issues our nation faces. In fact, we are currently working on a proposal to streamline the individual personal exemption process, and reduce the time and expense associated with the current process. I will be contacting you in the next few days to discuss this with you.

Again, Congressman Istook appreciates your time and opinions as he faces the many tax reform alternatives that will be presented during this year. And I look forward to visiting with you once again.

Sincerely,

James P. Davenport
Field Representative
