

Sunday

May 19, 2002

Page 4B

Business

BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

Local CPA celebrates fifth year in business

The Edmond Sun's feature on the Sunday business page spotlights a "Business of the Week." The focus is primarily on businesses started within the last year, who are members of the Edmond Area Chamber of Commerce.

Q. What is the exact name, address and phone number of your business, and who are the owners?

A. Joshua Jenson, CPA, P.C.
300 N. Broadway, Suite A
Edmond, OK 73034
(405) 715-1556 — Office
www.joshuajensoncpa.com
100 percent shareholder is

Joshua Jenson, CPA

Q. When was it established?

A. I started practicing May 15, 1997, in Nichols Hills. I moved my practice to Edmond in October of 2001.

Q. What services/products do you offer?

A. I offer tax preparation and planning, tax estimates and projections, accounting and bookkeeping, payroll reporting, business advisory and consulting, new business start-ups, IRS audit and correspondence assistance and financial statement compilation.

I serve individuals and sole proprietors, corporations and S corporations, partnerships and LLC's and trusts.

Q. What is your motto?

A. Let's plan for no "tax surprises."

SARAH PHIPPS/The Edmond Sun

Joshua Jenson is an Edmond CPA. His business is at 300 N. Broadway, Suite

A.

Q. What advice would you offer to others interested in starting their own business?

A. Consult with an experienced business attorney and CPA first.

Q. Who has the greatest influence on you?

A. Jesus and my grandfather, who was also a CPA for over 55 years.

Q. What are you most proud of?

A. My wife, daughter and the fact that I built this CPA firm.

Q. How would you like to be remembered?

A. As a Christian leader who served his family, church, clients and community with integrity and enthusiasm.