

CPA moves practice to Edmond

Editor's note: The following article previously appeared in the Dec. 20 issue, however, the headline was incorrectly stated. Today, it's published in its entirety on behalf of the mistake. The staff at Edmond Life & Leisure apologizes for the confusion this may have caused our readers.

Joshua Jenson, CPA relocated his practice to Edmond.

Recently Jenson held an open house for clients and associates to see his new offices. Jenson, whose practice had been located in Nichols Hills since 1997, now offices at 300 N. Broadway, Suite A, in downtown Edmond.

"My family and I have lived in Edmond for several years, my wife is an instructor (in Edmond), and it was the right time to relocate my practice to the community in which I love to spend my time and energies. I am excited about being here in Edmond, and look forward to becoming even more involved in our community," Jenson said.

Jenson, who has been practicing for nine years, provides tax preparation and planning services, tax estimates and projections, payroll reporting, business consulting, as well as the bookkeeping services. His clients include individuals, sole proprietorships, corporations, s-corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies.

A graduate of Abilene Christian University in Texas, Jenson started his career in Dallas with a large regional CPA firm.

When starting a family, Jenson and wife Jennifer decided to move to Oklahoma City in 1996. Upon arrival to the metro area, Jenson worked with a medium-sized local firm.

Soon thereafter he opened his own practice so he could spend more time with his family.

Jenson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Oklahoma Society of CPAs and the Oklahoma City Chapter of CPAs.

"It's my goal to provide my clients with prompt personal service, tailored to meet their individual and business needs. My practice is committed to maintaining the tradition and excellence associated with the CPA profession."

Call 715-1556 or log on to www.joshuajensoncpa.com for more information. ♡

'It's my goal to provide my clients with prompt personal service, tailored to meet their individual and business needs. My practice is committed to maintaining the tradition and excellence associated with the CPA profession.'

Jenson